

About SharePeople

SharePeople is a Dutch social enterprise focused on improving development of small and medium enterprises and commercialising NGO's in developing countries through the involvement of professionals from European companies. SharePeople maintains partnerships with a wide range of companies and international organisations. SharePeople is member of the ICCO-alliance, an international alliance operating in more than 50 developing countries with over 900 partners.

SharePeople
P.O. Box 8184
3503 RD Utrecht
The Netherlands
+ 31 (0) 30 880 1563
info@sharepeople.nl
www.sharepeople.nl

Authentic Leadership

"With SharePeople we looked at the same situation as always, but in a different way. Where are we now? What should we focus on? Working with European professionals has given us fresh ideas on how to analyse our business."

Alak Kumar Jana, manager Khunti Horticultural Co-operation, participant MD programme India

Boost your company!

www.sharepeople.nl

expanding horizons • building leadership

Boost your company!

New eyes and fresh ways of looking at challenges can bring you and your organisation new perspectives. SharePeople offers you the opportunity to work on your business processes with highly talented European professionals. In well supervised and demanding programmes you and the European professionals will work closely together to achieve visible results for your organisation. These programmes contribute to business results within a few weeks and stimulate new local and international ways of co-operation. We invite you to open your doors and your mind to a win-win situation for all participants!

Benefits for your organisation

New insights

- European business expertise, knowledge and experience
- Improvement of your management skills by coaching and management training
- New insights in and instruments for a commercial way of working
- A fresh view on your organisation/company
- New insights in management development
- Upgrade of your performance as an entrepreneur

Results

- Preparation on your (future) leadership
- Continuous access to (inter)national business networks and sparring teams
- Optimisation of business processes and management
- Concrete results, such as improved marketing strategy, new ways to optimise sales or better insights in cost reduction
- A boost for your company

Would you like to see examples? www.sharepeople.nl/businesscases

Who are we looking for?

You are an entrepreneur or manager within an SME with social impact or NGO with 'a hunger for upgrading'. You have got the drive to change your way of working and to develop your business in a sustainable way. You are open to share knowledge and ideas with European professionals. You want to benefit from coaching by a learning manager.

Costs

Your contribution consists of your full-time availability and active participation during the programme (2 – 6 weeks). Apart from your time investment, we ask you to organise and provide for full board and lodging and local transport for the participants for their services rendered.

Apply your business case now!

A business case contains a specific entrepreneurial question or challenge in the field of: organisation/management, ICT, finance/insurance, logistics/production/technology or marketing/communication/sales. If you are interested in co-operation with SharePeople, please submit your business case at our website www.sharepeople.nl/applybusinesscase. SharePeople will contact you as soon as possible.

If you have any questions or if you need assistance with the application, please contact SharePeople on + 31 30 880 1563 or info@sharepeople.nl.